

TERMINAL DISCLAIMER TO OBVIATE A DOUBLE PATENTING REJECTION

In re Application of: Mays, Ralph C.
Application No.: 10/706,119
Filed: 11/11/2003
Title: AN OBTURATOR SYSTEM FOR FILING A ROOT CANAL
AND METHOD OF USE THEREOF

The successor in interest of the inventor, Ralph C. Mays, ^{OIPE}now deceased, owner of the entire right, title and interest in this application, by and through her attorney of record, hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 USC 154 to 156 and 173, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer of prior issued U.S. Patent Nos. 6,312,261 and 6,644,972. The successor in interest hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the prior patents are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the successor in interest, its successors or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the successor in interest does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 USC 154 to 156 and 173 of the prior patent, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, in the event that it later expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee, is held unenforceable, is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 CFR 1 321, has all claims cancelled by a reexamination certificate, is reissued, or is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.
